[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Washington, June 8.—After an hour's session today the senate committee on finance agreed to report the reciprocity bill with the Root amendment added.

One of the latest was a telegram from the president of the Saginaw board of trade, showing that at a recent poll 304 members voted in favor of reciprocity and 57 against.

Root Amendment.

The Root amendment to the print paper and wood pulp provision of the reciprocity bill was adopted by the committee by a vote of eight to six.

Tie Votes.

An attempt to authorize an unfavorable report resulted in a tie, and another tie marked the effort to report the measure without any recommendation.

Free List.

The attempt to reduce instead of removing the duties on live stock and farm products was defeated; also was the efforts to add the House free list bill and to include flour and meats in the free list.

Wood Pulp.

On the Root amendment requiring the admission of American wood pulp and paper into Canadian territory, free of duty, the affirmative votes were cast by Lodge, Shantz, Chandler, Clark of Wyoming, Heyburn, La Follette, Bailey and Simmons.

The Negative.

The negative by Ponson, Culver and McCumber, republicans; and Stone, Kern and Williams, democrats. The bill will be reported to the senate next Tuesday.

GROWERS BUSY WITH PLANTING OF CROP

TRANSPANTING OPERATIONS HAVE BEGUN IN EARNEST THROUGHOUT COUNTRY.

MARKE MORE ACTIVE

Sales and Movement of Goods Out of Local Market During Past Week Has Amounted to Quite a Business.

From all parts of the country come reports that the work of transplanting the young tobacco plants is well under way and present prospects are that the crop will be set out at an earlier date than has been seen for a number of years. Plants are reported to be large and healthy and most of the growers have found it necessary to begin transplanting in order to use their largest plants which were crowded out by the others in the beds.

Present weather conditions are most favorable for the newly set plants. The air is cool and moist so that there is no danger of the plants burning out, and recent rains have put the ground in the best of shape. The season promises to be good one for the crop which will grow quickly.

Among some of the most extensive growers of the wool this season will be the Guiness brothers, who have their plantations west of town, between Pleasant street and Mineral Point avenue. Under their supervision some forty to sixty acres will be planted, the larger part of which will be in the fields the latter part of this week. This acreage combined with the amount to be raised on the Hedges' farm in the immediate vicinity, will make a total of nearly one hundred acres to be raised there within a short radius.

On the Guiness brothers' farms the work of setting out the crop was begun this week on a large scale. Setting machines were kept in the field continuously and plants were carried to them as fast as they could be used. Large galvanized tanks were used to haul the water which was drawn from the well by gasoline power pumps, and the entire operations were most systematic.

Reports from around Stoughton in the tobacco growing section of Dane county, are to the effect that conditions are as forward there as in Rock county. Transplanting was well under way and a large acreage will be raised.

The market here has shown more activity during the past week than for some time past. Several eastern firms have had representatives here looking over the field securing information as to the trade conditions. A representative of the Rosenwald firm of New York, who bought the large 1910 packing in Edgerton last week, was in Janesville, and it is understood, secured options on a considerable amount of goods. Parties from York, Pa., were also here and bought various amounts. In addition there has been the usual retail trade which helped in swelling the total amount of business transacted.

Dealers who have shipped out goods recently are: Geo. H. Rumrill, 30 cases of '07; S. B. Hodges, a carload; F. B. Quinn, forty odd cases; McGee Brothers, a carload; Sanford Soverhill, a car, and other dealers in varying amounts.

Practically the only purchase of importance here has been some 250 cases of the 1910 packing which was taken by Gen. H. Rumrill from Stoughton dealers.

SHORT STRAWBERRY CROP THIS SEASON

Best of the Crop About Janesville Will Be Harvested This Week.—Pine-apples Plenty.—Market Notes.

Lack of early rains this spring and a rather unfavorable winter is given as the cause for the short strawberry crop this season. The home grown berries made their appearance in the local market this week and according to the dealers the fruit of them will be harvested by the last of the week.

Prices have remained high and have not taken the customary drop when the home grown fruit was offered. It is said they are as cheap now as they will be this year and that now is the time to buy for canning. The quality of the fruit is good although a trifl smaller perhaps than usual. Retail prices are about 12½ cent per quart, about $1.00 to $1.75 per crate. The growers are receiving from 8 to 10 cents for the crop this year on account of the scarcity.

Although the strawberry crop is short there will be plenty of pineapples. There has been a number of these shipped in during the past few weeks and there are more to come. The quality is excellent and prices at present range from 75 cents per dozen for the smaller ones to $1.50 for the larger in size.

California cherries are among the more recent offerings on the local market and are sold at 20 cents per pound. New potatoes are being received also and retail at about the same mark.

Prices range as follows:

Strawberries, qt.—12½¢, crate—$1.00, Pineapples—75¢ to $1.50 per dozen.

Oranges, doz.—25 to 50¢.

Lemons, doz.—20 to 30¢.

AUTO IS AN AID AT A CRITICAL PERIOD

Use of One Yesterday Enabled Fred Hart a Rural Mail Carrier to Keep Wedding Engagement.

At three o'clock Wednesday afternoon Miss Ida Kramer was united in marriage to Fred Hart of Beloit, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kramer, 1929 McKay boulevard, in this city. Reverend David Beaton performed the ceremony which was a most charming home affair and the happy couple left a few hours later for Milwaukee on their wedding trip. Miss Kramer was attended by her sister, Lydia, and her brother, Edward, acted as best man for the groom. Immediately following the ceremony a hearty wedding supper was served and the happy couple left amid the congratulations of their many friends.

But this followed the auto trip of the groom. Mr. Hart is carrier for Uncle Sam's rural mail route No. 29 out of the Beloit postoffice. He had made his plans to be married yesterday and had engaged a substitute to take his route. Imagine his dismay when the substitute failed to arrive at the office and the groom-to-be saw the necessity of driving the route himself and perhaps being late for his own wedding in this city in the afternoon.

Just at this point, Leslie Chamberlain, of Beloit, with his husband "Sam," appeared upon the scene. He stated that he would cover the route with his car, and took Mr. Hart with him.

The route always took Mr. Hart until between 1 and 1:30 o'clock to cover with his horse and wagon. Imagine, therefore, the surprise of the office men when Mr. Chamberlain returned two hours later with the news that he had distributed all the mail. That an auto should make the 180 stops and return to the city in two hours was such a miracle that they simply threw up their hands in amazement unable to comprehend the fact.

The record stands and Mr. Hart was able to be present at the home of the prospective bride without any serious delay.

TO PROTEST AGAINST INCOME TAX MEASURE

Members of Commercial Club in Madison Today to Point Out Objectionable Features of Income Tax Bill.

Leaving the city at 11:50 this morning, a delegation of the members of the Industrial and Commercial club, went to Madison today to make a protest through members of the legislature, on certain features of the income tax bill which will come up for a hearing before the committee tomorrow. It was decided to send such a delegation at a recent meeting of the club, the matter being left to the legislative committee, but upon finding that a greater portion of this committee could not go, it was decided that as many of the members who were able would go.

It seems to be the general impression that the bill will pass the present legislature but there are some features which are not out of harmony with the interests of certain lines of industry, that it was felt that a formal protest from the business men of the city might aid in changing it.

One of the objectionable parts is the one which causes a tax to be levied on the implied renting value of property owned by the taxpayer. The main plan of the bill is a graduated tax on incomes up to 100 per cent tax on incomes over $12,000. The delegation which goes to the capitol to protest today will not appear before the committee. Some of those in the party are George Sutherland, T. O. Howe, Frank Jackson, Samuel Smith, and Secretary Lane.

FORMER SHERIFF IS CHIEF OF INDIANS

Ira Fisher Known As "Sitting Bull" by His Copper Colored Followers in the Winnipeg Country.

If the tales that Frank Snyder brings back with him from the Winnipeg country are true, former Sheriff Ira Fisher is now a full-blooded Indian chieftain with a village "all his own" on the three hundred and sixty acres he and Mr. Snyder own and are bringing under cultivation.

According to the reports received the big former sheriff is known by the endearing term of "Big Sitting Bull" to his followers. While he does not live in their village—he has his own home some distance away—still, to all intent and purpose, he is their veritable chief.

There are some twenty young bucks working clearing the ground for cultivation and they with their squaws and young ones bring the total of the little colony up to forty. They live in the primitive style, in huts or wigwams, and cook in the open. For the most part they are gentle, but Frank Snyder says they like liquor, and as a consequence he and the "Big White Chief" went without any while their "subjects" enjoyed their supply at a Sunday morning breakfast recently. Mr. Snyder fails to give the name the Indians have applied to him and it will be interesting to hear from "Big Chief" as to what it is. Mr. Fisher will remain in the north for some months yet.

Friends' Judgment Faulty.

Don't imagine because your friends predict great things for you that that will settle the matter. Their affection for you and interest in you may overvalue your powers, and the further fact that they are not specialists in the line for which they declare you so splendidly adapted makes their judgment not only of doubtful value but in most cases radically wrong.

EDGERTON MAN WAS STRUCK AND KILLED BY EXPRESS TRAIN

Michael Joyce Met Fate Late Yesterday When Struck by Train at Hanerville Crossing West of Edgerton.

Edgerton, June 8.—Michael Joyce met his fate yesterday afternoon at Hanerville Crossing, about seven miles west of the city. He was engaged hauling water for the tobacco field of Andrew Augustine, and not noticing the approaching express train, due here at 4:40, the engine struck his wagon and hurled him skyward, inflicting injuries from which he died two hours afterward.

The train was stopped immediately and the unfortunate man brought to town and taken to the residence of his son-in-law, H. T. Sweeney, just west of the city. Doctors Cleary and Mcchesney, who were in attendance, found the collarbone, four ribs and left limb broken.

The deceased was a familiar figure in this section, having resided here for the past fifty years. He was native of Ireland and on January last celebrated his seventy-seventh birthday. Three daughters mourn his death, all of whom reside here. Nelson-Lein.

Yesterday, in the town of Porter, at 12 o'clock noon, occurred the marriage of Miss Jenny Nelson of that place and Carl L. Lein of Albion Prairie. The pleasant event took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nelson, and was witnessed by a large assembly of relatives and invited guests.

Rev. J. Linnevald of this city performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Esther Nelson, and Frank Nelson, brother of the bride, was best man. Sven and Signe Adolphson served as flower girl and ring bearer. Following the ceremony and congratulations a sumptuous wedding dinner was served.

After a wedding-trip Mr. and Mrs. Lein will be at home on the Lein homestead farm in the town of Albion.

LEPROSY IN 1911

This most ancient of the maladies that the flesh is heir to is not quite as much of a mystery as it was in the older times. Scientific study of the disease, combined with close observation of practical experts, such as Mr. John Jackson, F. R. G. S., has made it clear that the disease, though contagious to a certain extent, is not violently infectious. The risk of healthy white people living under hygienic conditions contracting the disease is only a slight one. Among Oriental races under unsanitary conditions there is much more danger of the spread of the malady. Mr. Jackson's wide experience during his long tour in the East as Organizing Secretary of the Mission to Lepers, has convinced him that though leprosy is conveyed from person to person under certain conditions, it is not hereditary.

He reports in enthusiastic terms on the progress made in the study of the disease at the Research Station provided by the United States government at Molokai in the Hawaiian Islands. He returned from his visit to that settlement with high hopes that have already been partially realized in the successful culture of the bacillus of leprosy made by the experts there. The development of the germ with a view to a preparation of an antitoxin has been the problem that has baffled the specialists for twenty-five years since the microbe was first identified. The success of Molokai, however, should prepare the way for further advance, and gives good ground for hope that a real remedy for this loathsome disease may be in sight.

Mr. Jackson has visited leper colonies and colonies containing many thousands of these cutest people, and has studied the problem in all its phases. His society is giving food, shelter, and medical relief to a vast number of those otherwise cut off people in the 70 stations in which its work is carried on.

Mr. Jackson will lecture in the Congregational church Friday evening, June 9, under the auspices of the Evangelical churches of the city, to which lecture all citizens of Janesville are cordially invited without distinction of creed or race.

SCOUTS WILL DRILL AGAIN THIS EVENING

Capt. Jake With Several Members of Eagle Team Will Drill New Boys' Organization Tonight.

Capt. Hans Jake with several assistants whom he had selected from the Eagle drill team, will drill the Janesville Boy Scouts again this evening. Those who have consented to aid in the work are: Frank Joyce, Hugh Flaherty and Edward Reilly. Instructions will be given at the top of Milwaukee street hill.

Capt. Jake has consented to act as Scout Master and his application blank has been filled out and sent to the Scout headquarters in New York. The order for the tenderfoot badges has also been sent and additional literature and bulletins have also been ordered.

Six more Scouts were added to the forty-three previously enrolled by taking the oath last night. There are many others who are anxious to join who will be received into membership as soon as they have learned the Scout law and other requirements. Some ten or twelve of the boys who were the first to be enrolled are now studying to be ranked in the next higher division and will be given their test in a short time.

There are many details of organization which remain to be adjusted, among which is the selection of a Scout council, which is composed of the prominent men of the city. Persons in Beloit who were foremost in starting the organization there have been written for information regarding the method of procedure and various matters which are puzzling the leaders of the movement here.

TWO CASES SETTLED BY JUDGE GRIMM

Judge Files Findings and Conclusions in Norton vs. Clark Case and Beloit Action.

Finding of facts and the conclusion of law were filed today by Judge Grimm in the circuit court, in the matter of the case of Norton against Clark, which attracted some attention during its trial during the May term here. The findings and conclusions are in favor of the defendant and the action is dismissed on the grounds that the allegations of the plaintiff were not substantial.

In the complaint the plaintiff, Mrs. Norton, former wife of the defendant, alleged that the latter had used undue means and pressure upon her mother-in-law and father-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tenley, in securing a recognition in the will of Mr. Tenley, and that he had otherwise influenced the parents to reward him with money. The will was admitted to probate in Fulton county, Ill., and in a previous action in Galesburg, Ill., Mrs. Norton was sentenced by the court on allegations of the same nature.

In the conclusion, Judge Grimm renders the opinion that the action should be dismissed and that the relations between Clark and his mother-in-law and father-in-law were nothing more than those of a good and attentive son.

In the case of the Beloit Hospital against the Sisters of Mary et al, the defendant was sustained and the judge found that the complaint shows no cause for action and that the plaintiff is entitled to no relief. The action was to subject property in Beloit to a lien of judgment against the Sisters.

THAT RECIPROCITY.

That the Canadian reciprocity treaty is liable to pass through the torts of the United States Senate now seems a probability. While it may be amended in a few trifling instances, in main, the bill which has been the pet scheme of President Taft, will become a law. Taft came west last week to talk on reciprocity and explain its aims and purposes more fully. That he knows all the goods that will come from it in time is evidenced by the extreme interest he has taken in its passage. Some of the most pointed arguments that he used for its adoption are summed up in the following pithy sentences and can be well taken home by all who are watching this measure and its possible fate.

Six months after the agreement is adopted there will be no complaint from any quarter.

I was regarded as an enemy of the farmers because I favored Philippine free trade. Since this was granted I have heard not a single complaint.

The chief opposition comes from those who own and control the lumber supply of the United States and those who are engaged in the manufacture of print paper.

The control of the country's lumber supply is in comparatively few hands. They are so friendly that the chance of a monopoly is neither remote nor impossible.

Under reciprocity with Cuba, which reduced duties on each side, our trade with that country has doubled.

Under complete reciprocity, or free trade, with Porto Rico, our trade with that island has increased nearly fifteen times.

Under reciprocal relations with the Philippine Islands our mutual trade has doubled in less than a year.

And yet in the case of each of these changes there were vehement discussions, with opposition and wild prophecies of disastrous results.

The cost of manufactured products that enter into the cost of living are higher in Canada than in the United States, otherwise they would not fear the competition of American manufacturers.

We export more of our manufactured and agricultural products to Canada than to Germany.

England is the only foreign customer we have that takes more of our goods than the comparatively small population of Canada.

If Canada continues to grow, what may we expect to sell her if we reduce the tariff, wall and introduce, as near as we can, free trade?

I do not advocate this treaty in view of its benefit to the United States alone, but because I believe it will be beneficial to Canada also.

It is because I am confident it will be soon on both sides to be a great, statesmanlike measure, one looking to the beneficial interests of both parties to the contract, that I so urgently press its adoption upon the congress and the people of the United States.

BOOMING THE CITY.

There is no doubt that one of the easiest methods of booming a city is to bring it to conventions of state orders. This year Janesville is to entertain the state encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans. It means the bringing into the city of several hundred delegates and their friends for the three days' sessions. As a result of this convention coming to Janesville it was possible to plan for a celebration on July 3d, 4th and 5th, that bids fair to eclipse any former celebration in magnitude and attraction of outside crowds to the city. It was due to the fact that the veterans of the war with Spain meant here that the War Department at Washington has issued the order that the Headquarters Band and a Battery of the Field Artillery be detailed here for the three days. It is due to the fact that the convention is being held that the Joint Committee having charge of it have been able to secure the services of the companies of state militia, many of whose members are members of the order itself. That the coming celebration will boom the city is certain. Already the newspapers throughout the country are mentioning the coming gathering and as the time draws near there will be much more printed relative to Janesville. To undertake such a gathering together of troops and former soldiers means an immense amount of hard work. It could not have been accomplished by the Veterans alone without the aid of the Industrial and Commercial clubs' assistance. Thousands of dollars are needed to finance the affair and this has been raised and is being raised by the sale of bonds which will be redeemed from funds which the committee hopes to receive from concessions, sham battles, dances and ball games. Just at the present time Janesville has the opportunity of securing another convention for 1912 this time, that of the Fraternal Order of Eligos. It will need money to finance this and the citizens should see that it is a method of advertising that will pay in the long run by attracting attention to the city and bringing to it a large delegation of young men who are members of the order. Conventions help boom cities and Janesville should get its share if possible. Concurred action of business men and those interested in such work will do much to aid in the work needed to accomplish results, and one way of doing this successfully is by uniting with the Industrial and Commercial club, whose object is to build up Janesville in every way possible.

Do not forget that the band concerts during the coming hot summer evenings will be appreciated by thousands, and aside from that will give an impetus to the band itself to do the best they can. Clip the coupon out and sign it and return it to the secretary of the Industrial and Commercial club.

So the Wisconsin legislature is jumping into the limelight with a demand for an investigation of the election of Senator Stephenson two years ago. Well, perhaps something will come from this that will not be as pleasing to Reform with a capital "R" as they expect.

John Arthur Johnson is on the high seas on his way to the coronation of his dear friend, King George V. "Old Arthur" is really going some these days.

So President Taft is not promised the support of Col. Roosevelt after all, and the sage of Sagamore Hill means to remain neutral a while longer.

Congress is having considerable difficulty in persuading the senate it is time to pass that reciprocity bill and adjourn.

Hold your breath. They are about to discover what really did blow up the Maine.

PRESS COMMENT.DID IT BEFORE.

Wausau Record-Herald: Bryan is trying to pull the wool over the eyes of the Democratic donkey. The animal is doing a lot of vigorous kicking but William H. says he will conquer the brute or break its neck.

AN ELEPHANT.

Monroe Times: Mr. Roosevelt says this country would never arbitrate the Monroe doctrine. Very likely, yet some people regard the M. D. as an elephant that should be given away to anyone who will agree to give it a good home.

QUALIFIED TODAY.

Madison State Journal: Senator and ex-Judge O'Gorman is qualified to speak on the result of judges as he did recently. He said that the recall would strike at the highest qualities in the Judge, namely, independence and courage.

PROOF OF TIME.

Milwaukee Free Press: There was the same outcry against reciprocity with the Philippines that there is now against reciprocity with Canada, and the same lack of reason as time has proved in the case of the Philippines.

Dissolutions. Milwaukee Sentinel: And while the Supreme court is trying to dissolve unreasonable trusts the weatherman is doing his best to dissolve the chunk of ice left at the back door. Did we say "chunk"? We mean "atom."

"Ultimate Consumers." Madison Democrat: Among the other ultimate consumers who are now actively engaged in the campaign to save the American farmer from the ruinous effects of reciprocity with Canada are the lumber trust, the paper trust and the wool trust.

CRIAL AND BRIEF.

Monroe Journal: The shortest sermon on record and one of the most effective is said to have been delivered by Dean Smith who took his text, "He that giveth unto the poor lendeth unto the Lord." The sermon was, "If you like the security come down with your due."

FINE PLACE.

Racine Times: Out of 10,000 voters, only 50 cast their ballots at a recent election in Lima, Peru. What a striking place that would be for the initiative, referendum and recall!

HONOR WITHIN HIS GRASP.

Sheboygan Journal: Madero has gone to Mexico City to disband the insurrectionary army. That's a greater honor than being elected president, if he and his army can possibly lay down their arms and permit the people free choice of their officers. He has proved himself a bigger man than Bolivar.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

A WISE ADAGE.

Out of the common experience of our American life has been coined, in the vernacular of the street, an expression that contains much of philosophy. The saying is:

"Keep still and saw wood."

In physics you find the striking force of a moving body by multiplying the velocity by the weight. In terms of human life you get the force of a man by multiplying his ability to do by his ability to keep still and wait.

Keep still.

When the foundations of the great deep beneath you seem broken up and the waves of adverse fate threaten to overwhelm you it may be hard to do, but—

Keep still.

There is nothing to be gained by crying out. Spare the indifferent world a recital of your griefs. Keep your head and conserve your strength to move what may be saved from the wreck of your hopes.

Keep still.

When lover proves recreant or friend deserts, court not ridicule by proclaiming your wounds. When affliction comes or bereavement, when misfortune threatens, nurse your hurts in private.

Keep still.

"Thou's power in keeping still. And to be effective one must apply the other half of this apothegm—way.

Keep still.

Work is salvation. There's health and blessedness and peace in the regulation task. No matter how poignant the sorrow or how keen the regret or dire, the disappointment, there's steadfastness of soul in doing the accustomed thing.

Saw wood.

If you have no wood to saw, no work that fits your hand and mind, you are of all men most miserable. You can only nurse your sulken pride or brood over your fallen fortune and toll over and over to yourself what yourself most hates to hear.

That way lies the state of mind that courts rebellion or mediates despair.

Keep still and—saw wood!

You can waste your life in idleness and in friction. You can throw your self down in the roadway by a telegram and cry aloud and refuse to go on, or you can clinch your teeth and travel with the caravan.

And if you will only keep still and go on in the frequented way by and by strength will come and serenity and hope.

No extra cost.

AN ALBINO KING OF ENGLAND.

It is quite probable that England once had an albino for a king. Edward the Confessor, who reigned from 1042 to 1066, is said to have had long hair and beard, both as white as snow. His skin was of a milky color, and his face inclined to rosiness. His hands were long and very white. An albino always has a skin of a milky hue, with hair of the same color, and eyes with deep red pupil and pink or blue iris. These peculiarities are said to be caused by a deficiency of certain coloring matter in the blood. The name albino was first given by the Portuguese to negroes they found on the African coast, who were mottled with white spots. Albinoes are found, however, among some of the lower animals, as mice, elephants, etc. From the descriptions of King Edward's personal appearance that have come down to us, and which are evidently reliable, it is reasonably certain that he was an albino.

MANY PROBLEMS FOR THE COMMITTEE ARE MOST PERPLEXING

PLANS FOR FINDING ROOMS FOR IMMENSE THRONG OF VISITORS HERE FOR CELEBRATION FIXED.

REST ROOMS NEEDED

W. C. T. U. and Y. M. C. A. Have Offered Their Services In This Respect and Others Are Needed.

As the time draws near for the big military celebration to be held July 2d, 4th and 5th, many problems confront the joint committee having the affair in charge. One is the finding of rooms for the vast throng of visitors, that will be certain to be in the city and the other is securing location or Rest Rooms for the women visitors. This latter has been partially solved by the ladies of the W. C. T. U. who will throw open their rooms on these days for the comfort of the visitors and the Y. M. C. A. has offered the second floor of their building for the use of women exclusively.

The question of having a list of all rooms that may be available for the visitors in the city, who can not find accommodation at the hotels or boarding houses is an essential feature and will be cared for by the committee when the headquarters are opened and the publicity bureau is in operation. Here all persons having rooms they are willing to rent, can notify the clerk and they will be listed, with price, location and other matters of interest, so they can be turned over to persons who desire them.

The hotels will be notified that the publicity bureau has a list of headquarters, where they can be fitted out to meet their requirements. It is advisable that all persons who have rooms they are willing to rent, make a note of it so as to send their names into the clerk of the committee, who will then list them.

Despite the decision of the Mayor and Council committee on Tuesday evening that games of chance should be excluded from the streets on the three days it was learned last evening that two young Janesville men were trying by all methods possible to get permission to operate a paddle wheel game on these days. As the streets have been turned over to the committee and it is the opinion of the committee that there be no games of chance operated, it is not probable that this or any other similar device will be conducted.

The committee also plan for two dances at the West Side Rink on the evenings of July 3d and 4th. There will be a full military band and the affair promises to be most popular.

There will be ball games each afternoon, during the celebration, Manager Green of the Janesville team having been placed in charge of this feature by the general committee.

While plans are not yet completed it is expected that either Monday or Wednesday there will be a civic parade, for which suitable prizes will be offered by the committee. This matter will be decided upon at a meeting of the committee this week. It is also planned to make the automobile parade on Wednesday the feature of that evening.

One of the biggest features of the whole three days will be the music by the bands and drum corps. These will start concerts on Monday and will be continued until Wednesday night, when the last of the crowds leave the city.

The United Spanish War Veterans state convention convenes on Monday, but the arrangements as to the details has not yet been arranged for.

It is expected that this convention will bring nearly a thousand delegates and visitors to the city alone, and rooms have been engaged at the hotels far in advance for their accommodation.

EXPECT RAILS TO BE DOWN IN FEW WEEKS

Interurban Now Laying Heavy Rails On Main Street and Plan To Complete "Loop", June Twentieth.

With a gang of thirty-five men at work laying the heavy rail on South Main street, and the work progressing rapidly, the authorities of the interurban company are hopeful of having the cars running on the east side of the river on June 20. The work of laying the new rails is going on parallel with the work of improving the road bed and has already progressed for quite a distance up Main street.

Eastern avenue has been greatly improved by the laying of which has gone on with the laying of the track and so far the company has used about three thousand loads of sand and gravel from their pits south of this city in the work. The heavy rail extends at present, south on Main street to Euchre and when this is met by the crew now at work, the east side of the river will be supplied with the heavy track.

As the city has ordered the paving of North Academy street, it is planned by the interurban company to equip this stretch of their track with paving and also new timbers at the crossing of the railroad tracks. These timbers must be of specified weight and have been ordered.

LOCAL D. A. R. URGES AID OF EVERYONE FOR SANE FOURTH

Issues Appeal To Every Mother To Aid In Great Work of Preserving Life and Limb.

Acting in conjunction with the various chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution throughout the country, the Janesville Chapter at their recent meeting passed an appeal to Janevilles mothers to aid in making the coming Fourth of July a sane one. Some of the figures for the loss of life or injuries in the celebration of 1910 show that the work of the Daughters is not in vain and deserves the support of every mother.

The following figures on Fourth of July casualties are given:

Killed in celebration of 1910... 128

Injured 2,923

Killed in last eight years..... 1,672

Injured 3,526

The chapter asks that every mother in Janesville lend her aid in the movement to suppress the use of all explosives on the Fourth of July, thereby safe guarding the lives of children and doing their part in lowering the appalling death rate and list of casualties on that day.

The Janesville Chapter also elected officers for the coming year. Mrs. A. Jackson will again serve as regent, Mrs. Francis Grant as vice regent, Mrs. L. C. Brewer as Recording secretary, Mrs. W. T. Shorer as historian.

Operations at Local Canning Factory Will Be Started Next Week—Large Acreage of Peas.

Next Monday will see the beginning of operations at the Hohenauer cannery factory when the first of the pea crop will be harvested. Between five and six hundred acres of peas have been grown on the farms rented by the company in the vicinity of Janesville and the crop is said to be very fair. Men have been busy at the factory for the past few days getting ready to receive the crop and all apparatus has been placed in shape for the first work of the cannery season.

GASOLINE EXPLODES AND BURNS MAN ABOUT FACE

Edward Arnesch, a tailor whose shop is at 8 S. Jackson street, had a narrow escape from a serious accident Tuesday night, when a pan of gasoline which was sitting near him became ignited and exploded in his face. A friend who was in the shop, was carrying a cigar, and when it went out he struck a match to light it. The flame immediately caused the pan of gasoline to flare up, burning Arnesch severely about the face. He ran to a neighboring drug store and procured some cold cream to ease the pain of the burns. There was no damage done to the members of the shop.

The club now occupies the position of being the second largest woman's club in the state, being exceeded only by a Milwaukee club and its position is unique in that the purpose of the organization is co-operation among the women of the city and the rural districts. The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON.

DO YOU ever worry? If you don't, you needn't read any further. This isn't for you. But if you are ever afflicted with that disease, even hardly ever, I have a little medicine chest for you today.

It is a thought for the worrier, supplied by some big mind doctors.

Your prescription is to take the whole medicine chest now, and, if you are a chronic case, every time you feel the attack coming on.

Here's hoping they will help you:

"Don't worry about the future,
The present is all thou hast;
The future will soon be present
And the present will soon be past."

"There are just two things in life we shouldn't worry about—those we can help, and those we can't." —Edward Everett Hale.

"Never put off until tomorrow what you can do today—except worry." —Newton Noydick.

"The worry cow would be here now,
If she'd only saved her breath,
But she thought her hay wouldn't last all day,
So she choked herself to death."

"For every evil under the sun
There is a remedy, or there is none.
If there is one, then try and find it;
If there is none, then never mind it."

If, in the face of these arguments, you can still worry, it must be because you love it and I give you up. No doctor will treat a patient who doesn't care about getting well.

Heart and Home Talks

by Barbara Boyd

Practical Housekeeping.

The Housekeeper's Valuation of Herself.

IF a woman can earn twenty dollars a week in the business world, it is poor economy for her to do the work of a five dollar a week housekeeper—that is in the home, where finances are a troublerome problem. This is purely an economical discussion, because many a woman who slaves from morning to night to save and economize is really going at it from the wrong end and because she does not probably estimate her own value.

One of the chief difficulties met in trying to bring harmony out of the chaos of the economical problem is this fact that women do not properly estimate their own value. This is particularly true of women in the home. For centuries the work they have done there has had no practical recognition of value. No one says it is valueless, but neither does any one set up any standard of its value. Ask the husband in a typical home to pay his wife five dollars or ten dollars a week for her services as cook and laundress and baby's nurse and general worker, and he would think you crazy. She works for love, you will be told. So she does. But this does not stand in the way of more practical recompense. In her heart, the woman knows her work has value. But she publicly puts no value upon it, and so neither the world nor the family look upon it as having any financial rating.

This condition works out harm in many directions. It leads the woman to think she is being economical when she isn't. And it sets up standards that judge her wrongly when she tries to put herself upon a true economical basis.

Because of these standards, a woman will slave all day making a fifty-cent dress for a child, when she could go out into the business world and earn several dollars with that day. The world approves of her toiling in the home for fifty cents, but doesn't approve of her toiling outside of it for a dollar.

A friend of a man's, whose wife holds a good salaried position, said rather smugly, "So you let your wife work!"

"My wife works and is paid for it. Your wife works and isn't paid for it. That's the difference," was the quick rejoinder.

Using time to save ten cents when that time could be used to earn a dollar is not economy. But this is the backward way women have been looking at the economic conditions for many generations. Fortunately, with the truer perspective that is coming in other things, is coming a truer perspective in this, and here and there, home women are waking up to their economic value. And these are the ones who must wake up to it. As we value ourselves, we are valued. If we consider our time and our work of little worth, others will do so likewise. And the work of the home woman will never be valued properly, until she herself puts a value upon it.

There is a great harmony in this world, and anything inharmonious, no matter how small, disturbs this harmony. This wrong valuation of women's labor has upset the balance and brought about the present chaotic condition. And it will not be righted while she continues doing the wrong. A beginning has to be made to right it, if ever so small. Women should value their strength, and their time and expend them in such manner as brings a just recompense.

DAILY DIET AND HEALTH HINTS

DIET IN GESTATION.

The diet during gestation should be simple but nourishing. Not more than three different articles should be eaten at a meal. It is important that the food should be satisfying and that excessive hunger and abnormal craving be avoided. A woman who lived through two periods on wheat only observes a marked difference between the children and the others, their appetites being more normal, with marked freedom from irritability. Much depends upon the attitude of the mind as well as the diet.

Now that she has been located, it is still a question whether an amicable adjustment of home surroundings can be arranged, so that she will return. Like a Mexican general, she has opened up "negotiations" with her father looking toward an amicable

The KITCHEN CABINET

A COMMON PLACE life, we say and we sigh; But why should we sigh as we say? The commonplace sun in the commonplace sky. Moon in the commonplace day. The moon and the stars are commonplace things. The flower that blooms and the bird that sings; But sad were the world, and dark our lot, And God, who sees each separate soul, Out of commonplace lives makes his beautiful whole. —Susan Coolidge.

Common Things.

Abraham Lincoln said that the Lord must have loved common people, he made so many of them. The ten talented people are very rare, and the world's work is done by those with one talent. We can specialize and do well one line of work, but try too many and our energies are dissipated without arriving at any result.

Household Hints.

Let housekeepers remember that Mrs. Moth Miller has begun her queenly reign. When there is a platter of cold cocoa or chocolate left over add a little cold milk to three tablespoonsfuls of cornstarch and add to the chocolate. Sweeten if necessary, and cook long enough to thoroughly cook the cornstarch. Flavor just before pouring into the mold or serving dishes. Use bits of left-over pastry dough for tarts.

Do not grind more coffee than is needed, as it loses its aroma and strength by standing.

A most satisfactory meat pie is made by stowing a small piece of veal until tender, then put it into a baking dish, season well, and pour over it a cup of cream. Cover with a crust and bake.

Between seasons, when the market seems barren of fruits, try a grape taploca. NEW CONTEST FOR WOMEN.

Take for instance today. What would be a tempting dish for the noon-day meal or for supper? Have you something that you think would be most palatable? A salad, perhaps, a cold dessert, a special way of cooking vegetables, a meat dish is on your mind? Think over this matter and then enter the new competition for the Gazette prizes for the best warm weather recipe.

Good hot days in July and August are coming—days in which you will not want to slave in the hot kitchen and when you will rack your brain for some dish that will be both invigorating and still refreshing. It is one of the arts of the perfect housekeeper to have some little dainty which she can set upon the table as a surprise to all. The Gazette believes there are many recipes to be found in the Janesville homes and in order that all may profit by the experience of a few it offers the following prizes for the best warm weather recipe.

First Prize—Pair Silk Stockings. Second Prize—Set Kitchen-Knives. Third Prize—A Book.

A chemise or corset cover embroidered in this wild rose motif will be most satisfactory. The turned over edge of the rose leaves is worked solid and also the centers and the leaves. The dots are done in cyclote and the stems in the outline stitch.

She insists upon the immediate resignation of Miss Mario Smith, at present housekeeper for her father, and like Mademoiselle, puts her entire case upon this resignation. Whether she will be as successful as the Mexican revolutionists in the overthrow of President Diaz remains to be seen.
